(2) In such a case the registering officer shall not realize any fee but shall grant a receipt to the presentant out of the separate book of receipts referred to in sub-rule (2) of rule 24 with the columns filled in as far as practicable. The words "Document impounded" shall be recorded in red ink on the receipt.

CHAPTER VIII*Procedure on acceptance of document for registration.Registering officer not concerned with validity of documents.

42.(1) Registering Officers should bear in mind that they are in no way concerned with the validity of document brought to them for registration, and that it would be wrong for them to refuse to register the document on any such grounds as the following, e.g., that the executant was dealing with a property not belonging to him or that the instrument infringed the right of third persons not parties to the transaction or that the transaction was fraudulent or opposed to public policy or that the document was antedated or that the registration of the document would involve the breach of the peace. These and similar matters are for decision, if necessary, by competent courts of law, and registering officers, as such, have nothing to do with them. If the document is presented in a proper manner by a competent person at the proper office within the time allowed by law and if the registering officer is satisfied that the alleged executant is the person he represents himself to be, and if such person admits execution, the registering officer is bound to register the document without regard to its possible effects.

What persons are to be considered to be executants of documents.

(2) The expression "a person executing a document" shall be held to include –

- (a) Any person who becomes surety for the repayment of a loan or the fulfillment of a contract and in that capacity affixes his signature to a document.

- (b) Any person who endorses a negotiable document.
 - (c) Any person who signs a receipt or a discharge endorsed on a document.
 - (d) Any person who signs a document as an executant in token of his assent to the transaction and not merely as a witness, even though he may not be described as an executant in the body of the document.
- (3) If a person executing a document admits that he has executed it but takes occasion to deny the receipt of consideration in whole or in part, the registration of the document shall not on that account be refused but the denial of receipt of consideration shall be mentioned in the endorsement.

Certificate of admissibility.

42A. If the requirements of the law have been complied with in respect of all the particulars indicated in Rule 20, a Certificate of admissibility in Form No. I in Appendix II shall be endorsed on the document and shall be signed and dated by the registering officer.

Documents on more than one sheet of paper.

43. When a document occupies more than one sheet of paper, the seal and the initials of the registering officer and the date shall be affixed to every sheet at the time of presentation

Receipt of fee and fine.

44. (1) After endorsing on a document the certificate of admissibility referred to in rule 42A, the registering officer shall receive the prescribed fees and the fine, if any, payable under sub-section (1) of section 25, and shall enter the respective amounts thereof on the document close to the said certificate, and at the same time the requisite entry shall be made in the fee book.

(2) The amounts of the fee and fine (if any) paid shall be respectively endorsed on the receipt given under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 52, in Form No. 8 in Appendix I.

Endorsement how to be made.

45. (1) The endorsements required by section 52 and section 58 shall be recorded respectively, in Form No. 2 and Form No. 3 in Appendix II.

The endorsement of admission to registration of a will or an authority to adopt under sub-section (2) of section 41 shall be in Form No. 11 in Appendix II.

The endorsement of admission to registration of a document, the registration of which is ordered by a Registrar or a Civil Court shall be in Form No. 12 in Appendix II.

(2) All endorsement under section 52, section 58 and section 60 or otherwise shall be made in red ink and signature thereto shall be in black ink.

(3) Every endorsement made by registering officer shall be written in his own handwriting. Rubber stamps for the formal parts of endorsements may, however, be used in all registration offices unless otherwise ordered by the Inspector-General of Registration in special cases.

The Inspector-General may also authorise a registering officer to have the endorsements written by, or where endorsements stamps are used, to have the blanks filled in by such clerical officers or Sub-Registrars, attached to his office as the registering officer may appoint in this behalf.

Identification of executants.

46. (1) When the registering officer is not personally acquainted with the executants of a document presented for registration, he shall require them to furnish the best testimony obtainable to establish their identity, such as that of persons known to the registering officer or that of persons of apparent responsibility.

(2) The registering officer shall satisfy himself that the indentifier is really acquainted with the person or persons whom he proposes to identify, and the indentifier shall be asked to state the name of the person to be indentified, and also whether such person is really the person whom he professes to be.

Signature of illiterate person.

47. When a person who cannot write, signs his name by means of a mark or by touching the pen, his name shall be recorded at length and the writer of the name shall also sign his own name in attestation that the mark was affixed or the pen touched in his presence.

48. (1) When the executant of a document –

- (i) is unable to write, or

- (ii) is not personally known to the registering officer, he shall, in addition to signing his name (in the manner indicated in rule 47 if he is unable to write) imprint the mark of his left thumb on the document to be registered and also in the book of thumb impressions to be kept in Form No. 4 in Appendix I:

Provided that, if the left thumb of the executant be defective or injured, the right thumb or any other digit may be used, but in that case or in the case of an executant suffering from small-pox, leprosy or other contagious disease, a note of the fact shall be made in the space reserved for impression, in the book and also on the document mentioning the particular digit used, and explaining why, in the case of contagious disease, no impression could be taken. When no impression is taken, no serial number should be given in the space reserved for impression in the book. But in such cases, the column meant for name and signature of the executant or the identifier in the book and also the column reserved therein for noting book number and document number, should be duly filled in for facilitating the identification of the document from the book of thumb impressions and vice versa.

(2) The said mark shall be made by a slightly rolled impression of the executant's left thumb (or other digit, as the case may be) taken in printer's ink on a flat piece of tin properly prepared for the purpose.

(3) Each impression in the register of thumb impressions shall be initialled by the registering officer, as well as by the officer taking the impression or, in cases of Pardanashin women, by their identifiers.

(4) When several documents executed by the same person are admitted to registration, a separate thumb impression need not be taken in the thumb impression register in respect of each document.

(5) Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, a registering officer may, in his discretion, dispense with the taking of impressions in the case of persons of position regarding whose identity there can be no doubt or room for suspicion, even if the executant is not personally known to him, and in such cases a note to that effect shall be endorsed on the document.

(6) The provisions of this rule shall apply mutatis mutandis in the case of illiterate identifiers of executants.

Further provisions in regard to thumb impressions.

49. Thumb impressions of executants or their identifiers shall be taken in the presence of the registering officer. They shall be taken in the printed form of book prescribed for this purpose by sub-rule (1) of rule 48. The serial number of the thumb impression taken in the book shall be quoted against the impression on the back of the deed. A separate book for thumb impressions shall be kept for cases of visits and commissions in the aforesaid form wherein a column headed "Signature of Commissioner" should be struck in rubber stamp in the space between the column "Initials of the person taking the thumb impression" and the column "Initial of the Registering officer".

Registration of documents executed by several persons.

50. (1) In the case of a document executed by several persons, who all appear before the registering officer, if any of the executants deny execution, the deed shall be refused registration in respect of him and registered in respect of those who admit. If some of the executants appear and admit execution and others do not appear, endorsement under section 58 shall be recorded in respect of those who admit execution, and the document shall be kept pending for registration in respect of others who do not appear, till the expiry of the statutory period. Upon expiry of the statutory period the document shall be registered in respect of those who admit, and registration shall be refused as regards others.

(2) Where some of the representatives of a deceased executant deny execution while others admit it, registration of the document shall be altogether refused, subject to the provision of section 73.

Procedure on failure of the executant to appear within the period prescribed by section 17A or section 23.

51. (1) When a document has been presented to a Sub-Registrar for registration within the period prescribed by section 17A or section 23, namely, thirty days or three months from the date of its execution, and the executant fails to appear to admit execution within the period, the Sub-Registrar shall, immediately after the expiration of the said period, record a formal refusal to register, leaving it to the parties to appeal to the Registrar under section 72 within 30 days if they think proper:

(2) If it appears that certified copies of all the papers required for production have not been filed in the requisitioning Court or that in the case of public documents, though such certified copies have been filed, no special reasons have been stated for the production of the original or when the special reasons stated do not appear to the officer-in-charge of the records to be sufficient, an objection shall be framed and forwarded to the Court by a letter for its decision before the records are sent.”

"Note 1. - All subordinate Courts should take special care to prevent the unnecessary production in Court of Public documents as defined in section 74 of the Evidence Act, 1872 or documents forming part of public documents or in public custody. Where documents are called for, the Court calling for them shall state the circumstances which render the production of the documents necessary. When, however, the Collector or other Public officer-in-charge of the documents has been summoned under Order XVI, Rules 1 and 6 of the Civil Procedure Code, 1908, to produce in Court a certain document, it will be his duty to send to the Court, but such officers may at the same time, in person or by letter addressed to the Court, object to the production of the document, stating the grounds of such objection. The Court calling for the production of a document shall allow, on each occasion when the production of such document is necessary, sufficient time to enable the Collector or the Public officer concerned, to consider whether there is any objection to the production of the document requisitioned, and, if so advised to frame and prefer the objection, and also to enable the Court to consider the same and decide, after hearing the parties, if necessary, whether it should compel the production of such document or not, and in either case, to communicate its decision to the public officer concerned before the production of the document."
